The Study

2008/2009

(From the Editors)

The yearbook, small as it is, encompasses innumerable memories. These memories, which instill life in the innate pages of the book, encapsulate the heart and soul of this school.

Whether it be the students, the teachers, the staff or the combination of the latter, the result is the same: an unforgettable year in a stack of paper. And it is these memories, that Ashley and I, as yearbook editors, have tried our best to capture.

Although novel, this task is far from simple, which is why the helping hands of our yearbook team have been so imperative. They have taken and collected pictures, designed layouts and prepared themselves for the year to come, where they can put their new skills to good use.

As a team, we would like to express our thanks to the talented girls who committed to drawing the exceptional dividers this year. We would also like to thank our incredible teacher and friend, Ms. Palumbo who has helped us in every way possible. It goes without saying that your commitment to this book was crucial to its creation. Thank you, and we hope you enjoy the yearbook!

A Message from the Head of School

Ms. Falco

The Study yearbook provides a treasured review of life at The Study and I am sure all will enjoy this edition for years to come.

As we come to the close of another school year at The Study, I continue to be amazed by our students' accomplishments, spirit and character. Whether it be their academic pursuits, or participation in co-curricular activities such as athletics, the arts, community service, debating, robotics, biology club, or student-run conferences, the 2008-09 school year has been another one of complete student engagement. It is a privilege to support the girls in their various endeavours, and to help them navigate their successes and challenges and witness their personal growth.

Nous avons la chance d'avoir un personnel et un corps professoral dynamique et hautement compétent; et le soutien qu'ils dispensent demeure la source du succès de The Study. Il ne fait aucun doute que c'est dans la curiosité, le talent et les qualités personnelles des élèves qu'ils trouvent leur motivation, de même que dans le grand plaisir d'interagir avec elles. Je tiens à remercier du fond du coeur les enseignants et le personnel de soutien pour faire vivre aux élèves des expériences si valorisantes de même que pour les appuyer dans leurs progrès, tant sur le plan scolaire que personnel.

I thank the graduating class of 2009 for their leadership and their creativity and for being wonderful role models for us all. They have had a palpable impact on the culture of the school and their influence will be long-lasting. I wish them all the best as they move on to new adventures and I remind them that once a Study girl, always a Study girl, that they are always welcome to return for a visit and to seek our advice and support. And indeed we expect and look forward to it!

Cet annuaire regroupe une merveilleuse collection de photos et de souvenirs, que nous garderons à jamais dans nos archives. Je tiens à en remercier les éditrices Isabelle Richard et Ashley Whalen de même que leur comité, composé de Talya Boisjoli, Kirsten Crandall, Anna Dai, Sarah Fortin, Eva Halabian, Amelia Hirst, Stephanie Marie lacuessa, Catherine Lépine, Laura Parry-Billings, et Elizabeth Pelletier-Goulet pour tout le temps, le dévouement, la créativité et la réflexion qu'elles ont consacrés pour créer ce souvenir bien spécial. Un grand merci aussi à Mme Anna Maria Palumbo pour ses conseils de même que pour le temps et le dévouement qu'elle a apportés à cet important projet.

All my best wishes to The Class of 2009.

Head of School

Ms. Zannis - Director of Senior School

As I reflect back upon the 2008 - 2009 school year, I feel a strong sense of pride for everything that was accomplished this past year, both inside and outside of the classroom. Your public speaking presentations in French, English and Mandarin were impressive, as were all the projects I saw performed or presented in the hallways of the senior school. The new robotics initiative met with tremendous success, due to your commitment to this activity. There were so many special moments and activities, that I cannot list them all, but I must not fail to mention the Environmental Conference which, besides giving us the opportunity to hear great speakers, also gave us the opportunity to see leadership in action on so many levels, as students from grades 7 to 11 participated and co-ordinated this very special event.

Comme l'année tire à sa fin, le temps qui nous reste avec les finissantes de 2009 nous est de plus en plus précieux. Vous êtes un groupe remarquable et vous l'avez prouvé à maintes reprises au cours de vos cinq années passées au secondaire. Votre compassion, votre engagement et votre bonne humeur sont des qualités exceptionnelles. Je vous félicite pour tout ce que vous avez accompli et j'attends avec impatience des nouvelles de tous les merveilleux projets que vous allez réaliser. Peu importe où votre destin vous conduira, n'oubliez pas The Study. Soyez certaines que nous ne vous oublierons jamais.

As Dr. Seuss said:

"Congratulations!

Today is your day.

You're off to great places!

You're off and away!"

Antonia Zannis

Mme Bastien-Doss - Directrice du primaire

Cette année, c'est le thème de l'harmonie qui a guidé nos pas. Nous avons compris que chacun d'entre nous était responsable de créer un environnement dans lequel primait le respect de l'autre et avons porté une attention particulière, mois après mois, à quelques vertus que nous valorisons à The Study.

Dès septembre, nous nous sommes attardés au respect et avons pratiqué cette vertu sous toutes ses formes. Est arrivé le mois d'octobre sous le thème de l'honnêteté. Nous avons compris l'importance d'être vrais envers les autres ainsi qu'envers nous-mêmes. Le mois de novembre fut celui de la responsabilité, thème à travers lequel nous avons appris qu'il fallait être reponsables de nos actions. Le mois de la tolérance est ensuite arrivé en décembre, mois idéal pour mettre en lumière l'ouverture face à la diversité et la multitude de cultures et religions qui nous entourent. L'empathie, la coopération la confiance et la créativité furent les vedettes de janvier à juin. Nous partons en fin d'année enrichis de ces vertus qui se trouvent à l'intérieur de nous-même pour la vie.

Because we know that learning goes way beyond books at The Study, I am thankful to our dedicated teachers for making it happen in such an inspiring way. Students learned through a wide range of experiences from the Harry Potter à l'école des sorciers play, the participation in the Parlement écolier, the World Fair, the Grade 6 Science Project Exhibition at Montreal General Hospital, the Reading Week, the Grade 5 and Kindergarten partnership, to the trips to Quebec City, Jouvence and Le P'tit Bonheur.

My congratulations and best wishes to all elementary students as they move on to the next grade. A special salute to our grade 6 students, I am confident each one of them is well prepared for success in senior school and that the living in harmony experiences and values taught this year will serve them well in their next educational journey.

STUDENT COUNCIL

AMANDA IP

HEAD GIRL

Just as I started to get used to being Head Girl, the next one is elected. My journey as Head Girl began several days before school even started: the entire Student Council was called up for a meeting. At this meeting, other than establishing never to trust me with your beloved hoodie when I'm dealing with paint (sorry Maria!), it was clear that this Student Council was going to be amazing, as proven skit after skit, Wednesday meeting after weekend meeting. About the occasional student council weekend meetings, it doesn't hurt to own Guitar Hero as a brain stimulant. Needless to say, we got really close. As Head Girl, I've learnt so many things I would not have had the opportunity to learn had it not been for this position. I've learned every quirk about each Student Council member; that I am strangely comfortable speaking in front of crowds; that fun facts are an effective way to entertain; that I'm, much to my surprise, relatively composed and that the walk up to Ms. Zannis' office is a great way to burn calories. To the Student Council, Amanda, Maria, Annie, Diana, Claudia and Josie, you girls are amazing. I love you all! I can't imagine working with anyone else. To Ms. Zannis, thank you for putting up with us, for not throwing out the St. Hubert car and for being so considerate. To Sass, good luck! I know that you're going to be superb. Lastly if I'm remembered for anything as Head Girl, let it be for these words: Did you know...

SUB-HEAD GIRL

Student Council has been like my smaller family for the past year; I have to say we went through many tough times, but also many fun times together. I remember the first time we were all together, back in the day, and we would all take out our Student Council books and jot down notes, but as the year has progressed we started leaving those binders at home and started relying more and more on Maria's great email notes, that I do download. The great thing is that when I look back I only see the wonderful and happy memories; such as preparing for assemblies 2 minutes in advance with Amanda, or writing cards to teachers (and making mistakes) with Annie, or helping Claudia calm herself before the Athletics Banquet, or setting up for dances with Josie, or even helping out Diana with things for the Elementary School. This journey has taught me so much and made me realize how planning an event is harder than you can ever imagine. I have to say, that Ms. Zannis is the biggest help in the world, and she has a solution for every problem. This year's Student Council was amazing and I thank you so much for being such a great team and working together amazingly during the hard times. I hope you all have had as much fun as me throughout this great experience. It's been awesome and I am happy to have been a part of such a great team. THANK YOU, See you next Wednesday! Good luck Alex!

AMANDA DEBRUYN

MARIA-OLIVIA CASTELLANO

SECRETARY

Looking back on the year, I can honestly say that being a part of Student Council kept me on my toes at all times. In fact, I've probably become way more organized than I was at the beginning of the year. Everything from our first meeting before school where we decided on a theme and splatter painted a banner in the art room, to our very last meeting at Ip's house deciding how to initiate the new Student Council, was an experience I'll never forget. Now that I think about it, all the ticket cutting-card writing-skit making-idea deciding-lunch time meetings were actually quite fun when you take away the possible anxiety haha. We always managed to pull through somehow. Ms.Zannis, thank you for your constant support, no matter how crazy our ideas were. Also, thank you Ms.Powers for all your help. For next year's Student Council, I'm warning you now, your weekends and lunch times will never be the same (in a good way too). Make sure you call dibs on the comfy chairs in Ms.Zannis' office, and that one of you has Rockband. You are all going to become very good cutters, and your handwriting is bound to improve with all the cards you're going to write (AD's did). Vic, I'm sure you're going to do great next year, good luck! Red, Multicolor, Yellow, Black, Green and Purple: thank you for amazing year; I'm going to miss you. I guess we're all off the boat now.
-Blue (Maria-Olivia)

ENTERTAINMENT PREFECT

What can I say about being part of the glorious Student Council? LOTS OF HARD WORK. Although I went into the year thinking that all of us had our separate positions and would do different things, in the end we worked together with every event and activity we planned. I'm going to miss our Wednesday lunches and our late night conference threads (although I've never even read one lol). Even though we complained about working on weekends, we'd always have a good time ordering pizza and playing Rock Band. I guess it was easier to get along since we had all grown up together but even so I feel like we made an even stronger bond this year. If only I could find people in CEGEP like you guys. Maria: with her funny remarks at the worst times lol. Annie: my right hand man. Diana: the quiet one who puts up with us. Ip: the leaderNOT. Debruyn: the colorful one. And Claudia (Bro): we don't fight a lot. I promise I'm going to miss you guys so much. I love you all!

P.S. Wednesday lunches every week after we graduate?...I think so!!!!!! :)

GIUSEPPINA DILILLO

CLAUDIA PAOLETTI

SPORTS CAPTAIN

I cannot believe how fast this year has gone by. It seems like yesterday that we got up at 6am to prepare for our first skit. Let's be honest here, we weren't all the closest of friends before the Student Council but now, you guys are like my sisters. We finish each other's sentences and do not hesitate to use verbal or physical actions to get our points across. Your gratitude has gone unnoticed. HAHA! I'm gonna miss you guys so much. Thank you Ms. Zannis and Mrs. Traylen for your constant support and guidance. Nothing would have been possible without you. Jess, you are going to have a blast and I wish you the best of luck. You do have a big responsibility next year, but remember to have fun with it. Time whizzes by. Amanda, Amanda, Annie, Josie (bro), Maria and Diana: thank you for making this boat ride unforgettable. Ttyl Peace.

TREASURER

When I first started Student Council, I had no idea what I was really getting myself into: Weekend meetings, morning meetings, lunch meetings, afternoon meetings, and basically whenever we had free time meetings. However, I do not regret any of it. Though we did have our arguments, many for that matter, I could not have asked for a better group of 6 girls to work with. We had many good times and some of my best memories are with you guys. I think we all learned a thing or two about each other, even though some of us have been together for 12 years! Thanks Amanda, Amanda, Claudia, Josie, Maria, and Diana for making this year amazing! Also, thanks Ms Zannis for everything! You kept us organized during the year, and without you, I don't know what we would have done! I still can't believe how fast this year went by, and it feels weird having another Treasurer in the school. Good luck Jess and next year's Student Council. I'm sure you guys will do great, even though you have pretty BIG shoes to fill!

ANNIE SALEH

DIANA LUK YE

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PREFECT

Being given the privilege to serve as the Elementary School prefect for the 2008-2009 Student Council, I can't help but feel grateful for the many skills I developed throughout the course of the year. The entire experience has rekindled my childish personality of poking my fellow members of Student Council and of smiling constantly without knowing the reason why. And further more, the great combination of spirit, hugs, smiles and cuteness that I receive from the younger students are the reason why I love my position. The power of youth is so exceptional! To Maria, Jos, Claudia, Annie and Amanda2: it was so much fun working with you girls. Thank you Ms. Zannis for having given us this opportunity. Your guidance has helped us all become refined leaders ready for the challenges ahead. Good luck Tatiana Cantarovich! You're going to love being Elementary School prefect.

COMMITTEES

Community Service Head - Jessica Magonet

It was such an honour and pleasure to be The Study's Community Service Head. I had so much fun holding this position, because, in essence, my role was to make volunteering fun! To accomplish this task, I got to invite speakers, make assembly presentations, organize outings, and best off all, help individuals find rewarding volunteering opportunities.

Congratulations to all of The Study volunteers, especially the knitters who collaborated to create a blanket for Share the Warmth.

Mme Anderson, thank you so much for your support and for giving me freedom to try new projects.

Good luck next year Christina! Remember to think big and have fun!

Girls for the Cure Head - Jillian Li On Wing

Girls for the Cure was an inspirational and unforgettable event. This year The Study raised more money than ever before. For that I must thank the entire Study community. This event would not have been possible without the help of my fellow committee members, Corinne Bertoia and Emilie Michel. They gave their support unconditionally, which meant the world to me. It was amazing to see all of the schools come together for such a worthwhile cause. Each year is always filled with so much spirit and enthusiasm, which makes the day even more enjoyable. I've learnt that this was not easy to organize, therefore I have even more respect than I did before for the women on the organizing committee, who come back year after year to make the event successful. I also thank Ms. Zannis for her consistent support throughout this event.

Tuck Head - Kelly David

First off I'd like to thank the entire high school for making "Tuck" such a success this year. I'd especially like to thank the grade 11s, judging by the tuck tabs you guys most likely paid for our grad. I also would like to thank Mme. Anderson for helping me, and my parents for driving me to Costco almost every weekend. Good luck to next year's Tuck Head, you'll soon realize that you're the most wanted person in grade 11!

COMMITTEES

Grad Head - Alana Schlemm

Graduation is such a significant event in all of our lives and I'm very honored to have been chosen as Grad Head. As much work as there was, I had a lot of fun planning the special occasion. Thanks to the rest of the Grad committee; Lindsay, Katerina, Chloe, and Christina, I couldn't have done it without you. Thank you Mme Anderson, without your continuous support and direction we would have been lost. Also, thank you to all the parents and students who contributed to the night. Planning an event like grad can often times be challenging, with the infinite checklists and endless decisions to be made, and, in the end, all I can hope for is to have made it a memorable night for all of you. Congratulations Grads of '09!

Bazaar Co-Chairs - Alexandra Nikidis & Patricia Good

The Bazaar, in our unbiased opinion, is by far the best event of the year. Besides the fact that it is really fun, the great thing about the Bazaar is that there is always 100% participation from the whole school. From the kindergarten class to the graduating class <3, the parents, the teachers, and the staff, everyone has a hand in this amazing event. We would like to thank everyone for your help and support we couldn't have done it without you. It was a great experience for us and we were really happy to share it with all of you. Good luck to next year's co-chairs.

Love,

Alexandra Nikidis & Patricia Good

Art Heads - Kelly Donovan & Shirley Yin Kay Ho

Usually there is only one Art Head, but this year our grade decided to elect us both. For this, we are thankful at having the chance to both live this experience. There is no greater feeling than seeing all the work we put into our banners being complimented by members of the Study community, and visitors alike. Combining our love of creativity with each different event made our jobs effortless. We would like to thank Ms. Campbell and everyone else who helped us out for all your support. It was all very appreciated and this was evident in the final results. Good luck to next year's Art Head, we're sure you will enjoy it as much as we did.

KAPPA RHO

I have always been a dedicated and spirited member of the Kappa Rho House and found it an honour to be named House Head. I had a lot of fun with the House and doing activities throughout the year has really made me feel closer to all the girls in it. Thanks to Ms. Traylen for everything you did for The Force and thanks to all the rest of the force members. Thanks to KP Sub-Head, Katerina Kavathas, and Sports Captain, Brooke Levy I couldn't have done it without you guys. I hope I was able to make it a fun and memorable year for everyone and I hope that Kappa Rho spirit stays strong.

- Alana Schlemm

BETA LAMBDA

This has been an AMAZING year, from basketball shootouts, math competition, volleyball and Sports Day; you have all shown so much spirit and hard work, easily displayed by the sheer quantity of points Beta Lambda brought in this year! This has clearly been a fantastic year and I've enjoyed every minute of House meetings and activities. Walking into the locker room every day and seeing our beautiful BL poster on the wall has filled my heart with pride to have been part of such a superior house. Although our domain lies underground, all of your extra-spirited cheering has, I'm sure, rattled the building and instilled FASCINATION and JEALOUSY within the other houses. We will always remember the abundance of green & white accessories, natural athletic prowess, Ms Liogas' unknown rapping skills and, of course, TUG OF WAR DOMINANCE!! Congrats everyone and thanks for a fabulous year; good luck to Nadine, Anastasia and Jacqueline for another year of red hot fun! Xoxo

MU GAMMA

HEY MUGAMMA!

Can't believe the year's over... You guys were so amazing this year, your spirit was out of this world! We had amazing showings at beach volleyball and won the title. Even if we didn't win everything, I know we were serious competitors. Who doesn't want to be a Mugammian Ranger? You guys should be proud!. Good luck to next year's force - Talya, Kristina, and Pattie - you guys will do great!

Love always,
Your Force Members,
Kiara, Emilie, and Sass

DELTA BETA

The 2008-2009 school year proved to be another opportunity for Delta Beta to show its spirit. We continued to accumulate house points, spirit points, and excellences throughout the year. Points aside, the tremendous spirit shown by everyone in DB was amazing. At every house meeting, house events or sports day, the girls always cheered and made the events great successes. Seeing all the enthusiasm helped make holding a place on the force even better and made us look forward to organizing all the different activities. Of course, none of this would have been possible without the help of Ms Traylen who was there to help us along the way. So, thanks Delta Beta for an amazing year! GO DB!!!

CORINNE BERTOIA

Moving to Montreal from London in grade 8 and starting at an all girls school was a huge change for me. Especially since in previous years I'd never had many girl friends. But the house on the hill changed everything for me. I'll never forget the friends I made here: J.M, J.L.O.W, K.D, A.S, A.D, M.M, and more. You guys are the best and I wish you luck in the future. Not that you need luck! Through all the crazy times, the blowout fights, and movie nights, it's you I want to look over and see sitting next to me, even next year. Keep in touch!

LINDSAY BOVAIRD

Don't cry because it's over smile because it happened. I can safely say that I won't miss the early mornings. It would never have been endurable if it weren't for my sidekicks/lunch table. AS, KK, CP, CT, JD, MC. Rowan, you are my sister and the most important thing in my life. Mom+Dad I love you so much and I couldn't have made it without you. Even though we've changed and we're all finding our own place in the world, we all know that when the tears fall or the smile spreads across our face, we'll come to each other because no matter where this crazy world takes us, nothing will ever change so much to the point where we're not all still friends.

COURTNEY BRAIS

I've been anxiously awaiting graduation, but now that it's finally here, it's come all too quickly. Throughout my 8 years at The Study, not only did I receive a great education, but also learned a bundle of things about myself. Most importantly, I have shared incredible experiences and priceless moments with my fellow classmates, better known as friends and Study sisters. The experiences and things I have dealt with in my life have truly shaped me into who I am today.

Mom & Dad, I love you very much. Thank you for guiding and looking out for me, but most importantly, for always being there. Zander, I can't even begin to explain how life could never be the same without you as my brother and I love you for that. To my amazing friends (you know who you are), you've all had such a brilliant impact on my life. The moments I've shared with all of you will keep me smiling and laughing in years to come.

It's amazing to think that I have spent a decade and two years at this school. I won't deny it I can't wait to leave! However, I am sure that soon enough, I will come to miss my uniform and various other Study trademarks. I am grateful for the outstanding education this school has given me. Throughout all these years, I have been close friends with many different classmates and am happy to have been able to know so many of you! To my parting friends, (you know who you are), thanks so much for keeping me up, and I'll always remember the experiences we shared! You made my school day worthwhile and I'll miss seeing you everyday next year. Thanks also to all the teachers who were so much more than that; you made these years that much better. To my fellow graduates, I wish you all the best!

KELLY DAVID

Even though I came in grade 1, I still feel like I'm a lifer. The minute I came to The Study you guys made me feel like I had been there for that first year with you guys. It's hard to believe that 11 years went by so quickly. I'm going to miss the fun times we had at school and out of school, but I know they won't be the last memories we have together. J.D, C.P, K.K, J.L, P.G, A.N, C.E, A.F, S.R, A.S, A.D, C.B. - Thanks for being there for me in good times and bad. AMANDA DEBRUYN

YO! Wassup, Class of 09? This is like my 10th time writing this, how can I sum everything up in one paragraph? Try 11: When I look back over all the years I've been here it amazes me how fast they flew by. It feels like yesterday when I first walked in through those senior school doors in grade 7. It's crazy! I really have no idea what to do next year without the people I have spent the last 12 years of my life with. My teachers, classmates and family have taught me so much and I don't know how to thank you all enough. I wish everyone good luck in the future and have fun, but most importantly, be positive, happy and LIVE your LIFE. That's all I got for now! Peace out! Amandizzle. P.S it's not goodbye it's ciao, see yall ltr! Ain't got no time for no haters, Just live your life! T.I

Twelve years at The Study: that's long. But in many ways, the years went by so fast. Although I took most of my years for granted, I know that it will be hard to say goodbye to the building I have been coming to everyday for most of my life. What would I do without my homies, CP (SA), KK (Mayne St. Pubs), KD (Kevin), SR (Dzan Dzan - HAYYY HOOO), AN (Terrance, yes Philip?), AS (Gotcha, I'll take you to the Olive Garden), and LB (Chef Bo), or JM, the big sister I never had. I love you guys so much, live it up. Also, thanks to my family for putting up with me through my best and my worst. Without your support and love I would have probably never graduated, you're the best.

Let your smile be your umbrella - Fresh Prince

KELLY DONIVAN

Twelve years at the same school! Starting as a young child at five and leaving as a young adult at seventeen is definitely a crayons to perfume story. This story, or journey, includes laughing, crying, learning, and growing. To my family, Study staff present and those that I wish were present, and to my friends I respectfully say thank you. Your kindness has shaped the adult. Without you, this story could not be told.

Kindness in words creates confidence.

Kindness in thinking creates profundity.

Kindness in giving creates love.

To the Class of 09

What we call the beginning is often the end. And to make an end is to make a beginning. The end is where we start from.

T S Eliot

CHRISTINA ELIAN

Who would've thought that after twelve years at the same school, I'm still not quite sick of it. It's hard to believe that it's finally over and we have to say goodbye. I've had the best times of my life at The Study and worked with the loveliest teachers. I will miss everything about this school, but most importantly my 34 sisters. AN, PG, BBFLTDTUP! Although one of our musketeers has slightly varied our plans we are still inseparable. JLOPW, SR, JD, CP, AS, KD, CT, AF, and everyone else, it's not going to be the same without you girls! Steph, mom, dad, thank you for pushing me and always being there for me. I love you all so much.

So girlies, my final words of wisdom to you all, don't give up and make sure everyone next year knows that you are from The Study graduation class of 09 and that YOU rule that school!

Even though we've changed and we're all finding our own place in the world, we all know that when the tears fall or the smile spreads across our face, we'll come to each other because no matter where this crazy world takes us, nothing will ever change so much to the point where we're not all still friends.-Dr. Seuss

ADELA RUIZ FLORES

My first and last year at The Study went really fast. I think about my first day of school, the retreat, and the trip to Stratford and they seem to be only two or three months ago. I want to thank all my teachers and classmates for making me feel very welcome in school since the beginning of the year. I can say this year I lived an extraordinary experience at The Study and I want to thank all my teachers for their support and for being part of it. I am very happy I came to The Study because I had the opportunity to meet amazing girls and make really good friends, thank you all for the funny moments and I hope we can meet again in the future! Good luck to all!

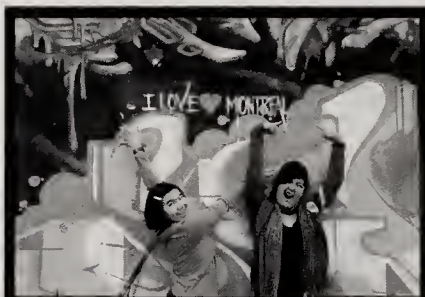

PATRICIA GOOD

From starting my first year in grade 7 with the wrong skirt, it was no surprise that I started my last year at the wrong school. Just like I got the skirt right, I got the school right as well, and it was the best decision I've ever made. The past 5 years have been the best of my life, AN, CE, JD, SR, CT, CP, KD, JW, AF, HB, AS, you have made it all that it was and I love you all for it. Whether we're dancing in the locker room eating rainbow strips or sitting on kitchen floors and counters, I wouldn't regret a minute of it. A huge thank you to my family who I love and adore, I truly appreciate everything you do for me. To my classmates, I love you all and wish you the best of luck in the future.

SHIRLEY YIN KAY HO

The most important thing I've learned during my 12 years at The Study would be that it requires a lot of sanity (or insanity) to survive as a Lifer. But I do think it's about time for me to graduate from a laptop to a desktop! (I'm probably the only kid here who actually wants a desktop after all this time.) Ip: I'll miss eating whatever that's in our pockets during class and just acting weird. Don: I hope your locker next year will like you; they don't like it when they have dents in them. Kim: You'll be N. Italy and I'll be S. Italy, Pastaaa! Luk: Asian music go! JM & CB: Chinese rap is awesome; Mandarin is our language. HFrench & SRoboTeam, it was amazing. To my friends of 11: I'll miss you all very much and our lunch table too. Unforgettable times. Joshua & Yellow, we'll keep in touch, srs! Wishing you 09 good luck in the future. I'll be seeing you all sometime soon! SYKay Ho <3

AMANDA IP

Ill this year I have been in denial, but it is time for me to come to my senses. I have put off writing this because writing it would mean that I would finally have to admit to myself that I n in fact leaving the Study, a reality I have not come to terms with. 897 characters cannot begin to describe all the gratitude I have towards this little house on the hill. However, I can confidently say that I would not have been the same person I am today if it wasn't for my even years here. To my entire class, you girls never cease to amaze me and I know that I will ever find a more remarkable group of people than you. To all our teachers, thank you for ever giving up on our class despite our many incidences. To my parents, thank you for always supporting me. To my sister, Angie, whom I idolize, you always make my day. Now, ill that's left to say is: thank you Study, you will be missed.

ARIEL JAY

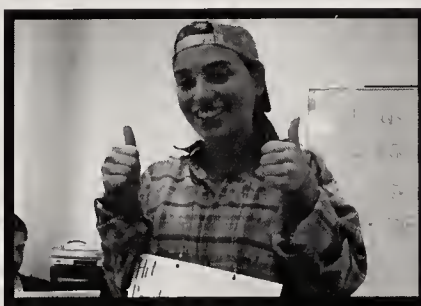

From the crazy dance parties where we randomly break into song, to the awkward moments in the locker room, to the funny times in class. The five years that I have spent at the Study with all of you girls will be unforgettable and the friendships that I have made will definitely last forever. A big thanks to the teachers who have learned to trust that I usually don't intend to lose my homework and to everyone who made me proud to answer the question that I do in fact study at the Study. Congrats! Good Luck, a round of High Fives and Lots of Hugs

KIARA KAMINSKI

I'm not known to be succinct, in writing or in speaking, so capturing 9 years of memories in 150 words is proving to be very difficult. I want to take this opportunity to thank my teachers who have inspired me to open new doors and expand my horizons. I want to thank my parents and family for surviving all of my antics.

Whoever ceases to be a student has never been a student. George Iles

KATERINA KAVATHAS

I wanted a perfect ending. Now I've learned, the hard way, that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next. -Gilda Radner

JILLIAN LI ON WING

I can't believe how many years have passed by so quickly. It seems so unreal that my journey of 12 years at the Study is sadly ending. Throughout my time at the Study, I have made so many unforgettable memories. I will never forget the people who have helped me and who have always been there for me. I would like to thank my teachers who have taught me so much. I would also like to thank my family who has supported me throughout my whole life. Lastly, I would like to thank all my friends for all the countless memories that I will always remember.

JESSICA MAGONET

Let's face it: I'm an embarrassment to adolescence. I look forward to Monday mornings. But what can I say. When you know that half-asleep Study girls await you in the locker room bearing hugs, stories, and Tuck for breakfast, it's hard not to smile. Teachers and classmates, thank you for making The Study home. I am so grateful that my high school was a place where I was free to be myself.

To my 34 sisters, I couldn't have asked for better friends to grow up with. I love you all to the moon and back. Study grads leaving Montreal, expect some legendary care-packages.

I came home crying after my first day at The Study, swearing to my mum that I would never learn French and never return. You incredible Study teachers and girls forced me to break both of those promises.

I'll be crying on the way out too.

And for this, I thank you all.

MADISON MCLEOD

It's always difficult to put to words what you'd like to convey in this small writing space because the time we spent at The Study includes many years, memories, laughs and friendships. To my graduating class, whom I adore, I wish you all the best of luck on your next adventures, may whatever you pursue bring you happiness for that is what all of you wonderful women deserve. I leave you with words of a wizened old wizard named Dumbledore "It is our choices that show what we truly are, far more than our abilities." I wish you all great choices in life. Best of luck and love to Cor.B., C.S., A.J., C.B., J.M., C.W., A.I., D.L.-Y., K.Do., S.H., K.A., and M.C.

EMILIE MICHEL

I have been anticipating graduation and taking this next step in my life since I first handed in my check for my grad ring. Little did I know how hard it would be, and how long I would actually postpone saying all of my goodbyes. I have learned so much in the four years that I have attended The Study and made so many amazing friends and memories that I will not enjoy letting go. No matter how many times I said that I can't wait to move on, I can guarantee that I will be crying and missing this part of my life like crazy. Thank you so much to all of my teachers and friends that made this experience such an unforgettable one. I will miss you!

ADRIANNA MODAFFERI

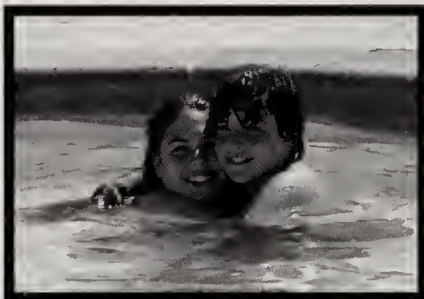

Sometimes I just want to press rewind and re-live all the fun times. All I can do is move on. I want to say a big thank you to ALL my teachers for simply being there. I'll never forget you (especially PT)! I will always remember the good times: going totally insane whenever the Phantom comes on screen and swishes his cape or whenever Capt. Chase says something in French; dancing around the locker room to certain inappropriate songs and trying to resist TUCK. I'll never forget the times where I laughed so hard that tears were pouring down my face and my sides were hurting like crazy. I must say that the up side in coming to school at 7 in the morning was getting the chance to hang out with some of the best girls ever. You guys are hilarious, sweet and totally exasperating and I'm going to miss you so much. Good luck everyone! You are absolutely unforgettable.

ALEXANDRA NIKIDIS

So this is what it feels like to be at The Study for 12 years. Those walls have seen everything; the best, the worst, and definitely the weirdest of me. I've had the greatest teachers and best school experience. Thank you, I'll miss it all. I must admit, though, it's my 34 sisters I'll miss most. CE, PG, my fellow musketeers, you guys are my bffltdup never forget it. Love you both. JD, SR, CT, AS, JLOW, CP, AM, AF, KD just the whole grade thanks for being you. There's no one like you. You're sunshine. Mom, Dad, and Steven, I love you all so much. Without your constant support and encouragement, I wouldn't have been able to do it. Thank you you're the best family anyone could ask for. Well girls what's left to say? I'm gonna pull an Elle Woods. WE DID IT! Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind. ~Dr. Seuss

CLAUDIA PAOLETTI

So no one told you life was going to be this way. Your job's a joke, you're broke, your love life's DOA. It's like you're always stuck in second gear, well, it hasn't been your day, your week, your month, or even your year. But, I'll be there for you, when the rain starts to pour. I'll be there for you, like I've been there before. I'll be there for you, cause you're there for me too. F.R.I.E.N.D.S

Thank you mom and dad for the constant support, love, and direction; your countless mortadella sandwiches were widely appreciated and will go down in history. I can't wait to share the next chapter of my life with you. Thanks biffles for the great memories, laughs, tears and terrifying moments that have defined for me the best high school years anyone could ask for. I'm gonna miss you so much...and remember I was always nice to you, so if you win the lotto 6/49 in the future, you have my number ;) I love you all, see you soon and good luck!

ISABELLE RICHARD

I could try to be poetic, to live up to the high, Study Girl standards, but to what end? Friends, you know me better than anyone.

To tell a tale of how much I will miss, how much I will remember, would serve no purpose. Because you know it all already: I love you and will miss you. Keep me with you, because I will certainly do the same. My final word, goodbye.

On your way out, remember this:

- "What is the meaning of life, Leonard?

- That's an easy one, son, it's whatever you want it to be."

James Frey (My Friend Leonard)

SHANNON ROMOFF

"You know it's been said that we just don't recognize the significant moments of our lives while they are happening. We grow complacent with ideas, or things or people and we take them for granted and it's usually not until that thing is about to be taken away from you that you've realized how wrong you've been that you realized how much you need it, how much you love it." - One Tree Hill

Mom & Dad, thank you for your constant support, I love you.

ANNIE SALEH

Three letters can sum up my 12 years at The Study: WOW! I spent more than half my life at this school and I can't believe it's over! Thank you to my teachers for always putting up with me. Thank you to my family for always supporting me, especially mom and dad who were always willing to drive me around. And most importantly, thank you to the graduating class of 2009. You were the sisters I never had. You guys made all these years at school amazing and I know that I am probably never going to meet a group of girls as great as you.

ALANA SCHLEMM

I've been here for eleven years and although it's gone by fast The Study has allowed me to make friendships and acquire tools that will last me forever. Thanks mom and dad for being there for me through everything, Courtney and Leonard, you're the best siblings I could ask for and you've always supported me, thank you for that. KK and LB, we've had so many good times and have many more to come. JD, gotcha. CT, CP, MC, JD, HB, thanks for making everything worthwhile.

For beautiful eyes, look for the good in others; for beautiful lips, speak only words of kindness; and for poise, walk with the knowledge that you are never alone

-Audrey Hepburn

CLAIRE SHAW

How can I write something that will not only compress five years of smiles and hours of laughter into printable size, but that will also bring them all back when I read it again 5, 10, even 20 years from now? Leaving this to the last minute (as usual) has only made it harder. I have gone from the shy girl in grade 7, who didn't know how to roll her kilt, to the person that I am today. To my teachers, thank you for believing in me even when I didn't. To my grade, thank you for being the most amazing group of people I have ever known. And to my friends, thank you for being there for me no matter what and for all the good times that we have shared. You have made these years unforgettable. Good luck!

CHLOÉ TAIT

How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard.

For those of you who, like me, always loved those scandalous "for-the-last-12-years-I-couldn't-wait-to-leave-this-place" blurbs, I apologize. I have two parents and 34 girls to thank for getting me where I am. Mom, Dad, Jamie; I will always be grateful for your endless support. You are the BEST: CP, AS, LB, SR, JD, KK, MOC, VD. AS, PG, AN, HB. Here's to every trip, every locker room dance, in 8 years of perfection; some things never change. Thankyouthankyouthankyou! I have one foot out the door and the other is rather reluctant to follow but both are wearing the right shoes for what lies ahead.

Peace and love, chongas

CHRISTINE WALDVOGEL

For the past three years, I have been lucky enough to be part of the caring and loving Study family. These three years have been full of memories and allowed me to meet all of you. I will miss all the amazing friends I have made at the school. For those who were there for me through the good and bad times, I love you, will never forget you and you mean the world to me and I know our friendships will last a lifetime! Thank you to mom and dad for all you did for me over the years. Good luck to the Class of 2009, I wish you all the best life has to offer.

ASHLEY WHALEN

After being at The Study for 12 years of my life, the day I never thought would come, has come. It's finally my turn to write my paragraph for the yearbook. I'll start by thanking all my friends and teachers who have really gotten through to me and helped me all along the way. Without you I would be completely lost and not the person I am today. These 12 years have been incredible and I will not forget any moment. I have seen so many people come and go, so many things change, but one thing that will never change is the memory I have of all the great times I had and of all the great people I have met. Thank you to my parents who have dealt with me throughout all these years and who have never ceased to support me with all their heart. Thank you. I love you all.

DIANA LUK YE

Since my arrival in grade four at The Study, it has been seven years of laughter and cheerfulness filled with care and support. Challenges and obstacles were tackled, and adversity has taught me that true friendship is a plant of slow growth.

Learn to value yourself, which means: to fight for your happiness. Ayn Rand Opportunities are endless here, which keeps curious minds alive. With the enthusiastic teaching of my teachers, they have helped me envision and believe in my future. With the help of my fantastic 34 sisters, they were always there when I needed them. I'll miss you all so much! Time flies and spending it on pettiness is not worth it. Take it to make a change for the better.

Sometimes it is the quiet observer who sees the most. Kathryn L. Nelson

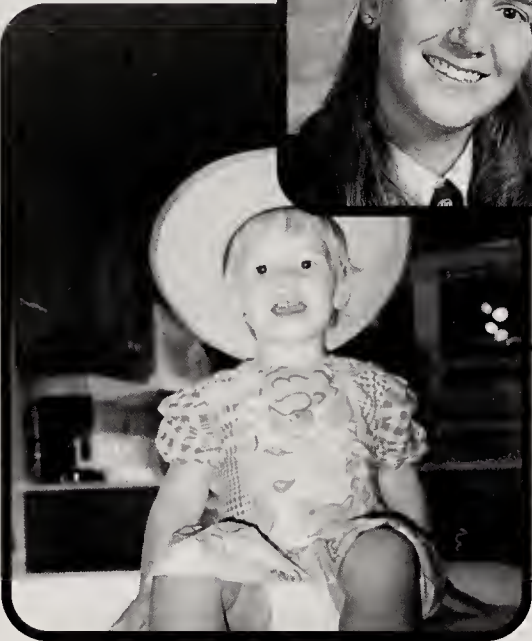

Thank you mom, dad, and Bonnie for your incredible support, I wouldn't be so strong without you all - my family.

It was a pleasure to be your homeroom teachers for your final year at The Study. We hope you keep in touch and we look forward to hearing about all your continued successes.

TO THE CLASSES

Dear Class of '09:

Most of you came into The Study Senior School the same year I did and I have to say, I have been spellbound right from the start. You are all incredible individuals and it is with both sadness and happiness that I watch you leave - sadness for the hole you will leave and happiness for having shared this time together. Keep in touch. I will certainly not forget you! Ms. Palumbo

Girls of gr 11,
If I had the courage, I would fail you all, so that you will have to stay another year!
But, instead, I simply wish you a great start with your next step. I will miss you tremendously!
"Be kind whenever it is possible. It is always possible."
- The 13th Dalai Lama

Ms. Kemeny

Bonjour les filles,

J'ai adoré votre verve, votre curiosité, votre humour, et je garderai de mes classes avec vous un souvenir exceptionnel. Voici enfin révélez à vous, les secrets d'une vie bien remplie, tirés de l'expérience de deux femmes aussi exceptionnelles ayant marqué leur époque avec leur excentricité: "Il faut toujours un coup de folie pour bâtir un destin" [Marguerite Yourcenar] "Nous sommes peu à penser trop, trop à penser peu." [Françoise Sagan]

Audace, réflexion, action.
Osez vous appartenir.

Mme Caron

Thank you!

Thanks for all the wonderful memories of students who were a pleasure to work with, who were motivated, caring and inspired.

Best wishes to all of you as you continue to pursue your dreams.

Mr. Harris

To the graduating class of 2009,

In the years to come, dear girls of 2009, I shall remember your desire to challenge and learn, together with the sound of your laughter echoing halls and classrooms. I shall always retain the image of a group of girls, merry and intent as they worked through their texts - that is a powerful memory. So that's it, dear children but if you will, permit me to offer you one last thought: seek the light. As expressed by J.K. Rowling of Harry Potter fame, "Happiness can be found even in the darkest of times if one only remembers to turn on the light." So turn on the light, look for joy, look for peace, and remember to laugh. And come back soon: we want to learn of the enchantment and exhilaration you found in the greater world; it is waiting for you to discover.

Ms. Rein

Salut aux
finissantes de 2009,
Quelle classe extraordinaire! Je ne vais jamais oublier ma classe de droit qui m'a tant inspiré et avec laquelle je me suis tant amusé. Je vous souhaite

santé, amour et la réussite

sur tous les plans.
Restez en
contact et communiquez souvent.

M. Picard

"Il ne faut jamais dire adieu, cela
porte malheur." -ANNE HÉBERT
Ni adieu, ni au revoir, donc.
Plutôt "à tout à l'heure".

Monsieur P.

Dear Class of 2009,

It has been an absolute pleasure teaching you physics and chemistry and working with you on robotics. You are an amazing group and I have really enjoyed your sense of humor, curiosity and your ingenuity. I am still reeling from the whole ball launcher idea with the robot - I never thought it would work but - you guys came through and figured it out!

Here is my favourite quote:

"The surface of the earth is soft and impressible by the feet of men; and so with the paths which the mind travels. How worn and dusty, then, must be the highways of the world, how deep the ruts of tradition and conformity!
I did not wish to take a cabin passage, but rather to go before the mast and on the deck of the world, for there I could best see the moonlight amid the mountains. I do not wish to go below now." - Richard Henry Dana From, Ms. Miller

Chères finissantes de 2009,

Depuis 2 ans maintenant j'ai eu le plaisir de vous enseigner. Et quel plaisir ! De jeunes filles intelligentes, passionnées et intéressées. Qu'est une enseignante pourrait demander de plus? J'aurais une histoire sur chacune d'entre vous, mais bon, je dois me limiter, donc voici ce dont je me rappellerai. Je me rappellerai de votre compétitivité: votre note qui n'était jamais suffisante, votre désir de faire mieux la prochaine fois. Je me rappellerai de combien il était facile de vous faire sourire en jouant à faire deviner le personnage historique. Conservez votre goût d'apprendre et votre curiosité, un peu de compétitivité, mais pas trop: soyez fière de vos accomplissements. Et un conseil: voyagez ! Allez voir le monde, découvrez et n'ayez surtout pas peur.

Je vous souhaite tout le meilleur du monde. Bâissez votre chemin, et une fois de temps en temps, prenez la route du Study pour venir nous dire comment ça va. À bientôt j'espère!

Mme. Brunet

Ms. K. Silkauskas

Dear Grads...

Thank you for sharing your curiosity,
your drive, and all your interests in life and everything it has to offer these past few years.

You will be missed, but enjoy, enjoy,
enjoy

Go out there, smile, and share with the world all what you have to offer!!
